Dear Guidance Counselor or Teacher:

The person whose name appears above is applying for admission to the Counselor-In-Training program at Camp Ponkawissett. Selection for this position will mean that the applicant will spend many hours learning to work with children in an environment where teamwork with peers and supervisors will be essential. Although your evaluation of this candidate will be helpful in selecting the CITs, your comments will be even more helpful by assisting us to provide support for the candidate if this person is chosen for a CIT position. Your frankness and forthrightness are encouraged, therefore, as being helpful to this person.

Thank you.

What are some of the strengths of the applicant?

Do you have any concerns about the ability of the applicant to participate in a training program to learn skills supervising children, or their ability to work as part of a community with peers and supervisors?

To your knowledge, has this person been found guilty of any crime by a court of law?

Please circle the number which best describes the applicant.

1. Exceptional 2. Good 3. Adequate 4. Poor
